

Picture story of The Course of Reproductive Ultrasonography in Bovine, Equine and Ovine

25-27 April 2009, Tiaret, ALGERIA

Organisers:

VITAL VETERINAIRE

Exclusive distributor of Draminski in Algeria

Theoretical part of the training – presentation of Draminski ultrasound scanners

Theoretical part of the training – presentation of sample diagnostic ultrasound images taken on different animals with Draminski ultrasound scanners

Participants of the training learning how to prepare the scanner to work

Explanation and training of scanner's functions and settings

Dr Mamadou Moussa Bah explaining the ultrasound diagnostic of pregnancy in cow using Draminski Animalprofi ultrasound scanner

Presentation of the image obtained with ultrasound scanner with the use of cow's uterus

Practical session – bovine examination

Practical session in groups on cows

Algerian veterinarians practicing rectal examination of cow with the use of Draminski ultrasound scanner

Participants of the training analysing the ultrasound image during examination

Practical session – equine examination

Continuation of the practical part – mares examination – pregnancy diagnosis

Participants of the training analysing frozen ultrasound image during examination of mares

Participants of the training after practical session in Tiaret Horse Stud

Sheep abdominal examination
with the use of Draminski ultrasound scanner

Extra training of the use of Draminski Estrous Detector – inserting the probe to the vagina of the cow and taking the reading

Lecture of Dr Mamadou Moussa Bah about bovine reproduction

Presentation of the certificates to the participants of the training

Group photo of all the participants, trainers and organisers of the ultrasonography training